STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Defendant's Apprehension

On November 16, 2007, around 3:00 a.m., defendant, Yvonne Ann Martinez, entered the San Ysidro port as the driver and sole visible occupant of a blue 1998 Ford Explorer bearing California license plates. The vehicle registration slip revealed that the Explorer had been registered in Defendant's name on November 14, 2007. Defendant handed Officer Clark a California identification card in her name, and claimed to be a United States citizen. Defendant said she was not bringing back anything from Mexico. When asked the purpose of her trip to Mexico, Defendant said that she was visiting her husband. When asked who owned the Explorer, Defendant said she was the owner. Officer Clark checked the computer records and noticed that the vehicle had no history of crossing the border in the six months preceding Defendant's entry.

Officer Clark conducted a cursory inspection of the Explorer and immediately noticed a strong odor of gasoline. Officer Clark then inspected the fuel line that runs from the fuel-filler door and noticed that the fuel line appeared to have been tampered with. Officer Clark then checked the fuel tank, located under the driver's side of the Explorer, and saw a non-factory piece of sheet metal where the gas tank should have been located. Officer Clark then saw two feet sticking out of the front part of the non-factory compartment. Officer Clark then instructed Defendant to turn the vehicle off and place her hands on the steering wheel and called for assistance. Officer Clark removed Defendant from the Explorer and placed her in handcuffs. The secondary officers arrived and took Defendant to the security office.

Officer Skiles drove Defendant's Explorer to the vehicle secondary lot. There, Officers Rios and Esparagoza took photographs of the Explorer and the compartment. Inside the compartment were two women, material witnesses Guadalupe Cid-Escalante and Maria Juarez-Ceron. These women were Mexican citizens with no right to enter the United States. The Explorer's alternate fuel source, since the gas tank area was turned into an alien-smuggling compartment, was a small gas can concealed in the passenger side panel, where the speaker should be located. The officers lifted the rear seats forward and could see the two women inside the compartment. The women were able to pull themselves out of the compartment only after the officers held the seat forward.

1       Defendant acknowledged her Miranda rights and agreed to speak to officers without the presence
2 of an attorney. Defendant said that her father bought the Explorer for her in San Ysidro a couple of 3 weeks before her arrest, for about $2,000. The address on the California vehicle registration printout
4 did not match Defendant's home address. When confronted with this discrepancy, Defendant said she 5 did not know whose address appeared on the Explorer's registration form.

6       Defendant said she had been in Mexico, visiting her common law husband who resides in 7 Ensenada. Defendant said she drove the Explorer from her home in Rosemead, California on Monday, 8 November 12, 2007 and parked it in a twenty-four hour parking lot. Defendant said she took a bus from 9 Tijuana to Ensanada, and that she usually makes a similar trip to visit her husband every two to three 10 weeks. Defendant explained that she had been unemployed for about ten years and that she lives with 11 her parents, but her husband provides her with money. Defendant said that her husband is currently 12 building an orphanage in Ensanada and received about $150 per week for his work.

13       Defendant said that, on the night before her arrest, she had dinner with her husband in Ensanada, 14 then returned to the Explorer in Tijuana. Defendant said she planned to drive to her mother's house in 15 Rancho Cucamonga. Defendant said that the Explorer was parked in the same location where she had 16 parked it days earlier, that it was locked, and that she was the only one who had the keys. Defendant said 17 she smelled an odor of gasoline while driving, but claimed she did not know why there was such a smell.
18 Defendant acknowledged any knowledge of the people concealed inside the vehicle.

19       Officers interviewed Guadalupe Cid-Escalante. Cid stated that she is a Mexican citizen by birth, 20 from Mexico City. Cid said that she has no legal entitlement to enter the United States. Cid said that 21 she arrived in Tijuana about a week before her apprehension, on a bus. After staying at a hotel, an 22 unknown man picked up Cid around 1:00 a.m. in a taxi and took her to a house. There, a man instructed 23 her to enter the compartment with another woman. Cid overheard one of the men say that a female 24 would be driving. Cid said Adriana made the smuggling arrangements by telephone on November 15.
25 Cid said she planned to pay an unknown amount of money to be smuggled into the United States, and 26 planned to travel to Los Angeles.

27       Next, officers interviewed Maria Juarez-Ceron. Juarez said she is a Mexican citizen by birth, 28 from Puebla, Mexico. Juarez also said that she has no legal entitlement to enter the United States.

1 Juarez said she arrived in Tijuana two days before her apprehension and went to a hotel. An unknown
 2 man picked her up at the hotel around 1:00 a.m. in a taxi and took her to a house. There, Juarez was 3 placed in the compartment. Juarez said that a friend made the arrangements with the smugglers, and that 4 Juarez expected to pay a smuggling fee of $2,000.

5 On December 12, 2007, a federal grand jury for the Southern District of California returned a
 6 four-count Indictment against Defendant, charging her with: (1) bringing in an illegal alien-- Guadalupe
 7 Cid-Escalante-- for financial gain, in violation of Title 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(2)(B)(ii); (2) bringing in an 8 alien-- Guadalupe Cid-Escalante-- without presentation, in violation of Title 8 U.S.C. §
 9 1324(a)(2)(B)(iii); (3) bringing in an illegal alien-- Maria Juarez-Ceron-- for financial gain, in violation
 10 of Title 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(2)(B)(ii); and (4) bringing in an alien-- Maria Juarez-Ceron--without 11 presentation, in violation of Title 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(2)(B)(iii). At the arraignment on the Indictment 12 on December 13, 2007, Defendant entered a not-guilty plea.

14 II

15 UNITED STATES' RESPONSE AND OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTIONS

16 A. ORDER COMPELLING DISCOVERY IS UNNECESSARY

17 No Order is Required; The United States is Complying With Discovery Obligations

18 The United States has produced 88 pages of discovery as of the filing of this response, as well 19 as a digital video recording of Defendant's post-arrest Miranda warnings and the interview with the 20 material witnesses. The United States has complied and will continue to comply with its discovery 21 obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the Jenks Act (18 U.S.C. §3500), and Federal 22 Rule of Criminal Procedure 16. Because the United States has complied and will comply with its 23 discovery obligations, an order to compel discovery is unwarranted and the request for such an order 24 should be denied.

25 1. Brady Material

26 The United States will comply with its obligations to disclose exculpatory evidence under Brady 27 v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). Under Brady and United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976), the 28 government need not disclose "every bit of information that might affect the jury's decision." United 1 States v. Gardner, 611 F.2d 770, 774-75 (9th Cir. 1980). The standard for disclosure is materiality. Id.

2 “Evidence is material under Brady only if there is a reasonable probability that the result of the 3 proceeding would have been different had it been disclosed to the defense.” United States v.
4 Antonakeas, 255 F.3d 714, 725 (9th Cir. 2001). Impeachment evidence may constitute Brady material
5 “when the reliability of the witness may be determinative of a criminal defendant’s guilt or innocence.”
6 United States v. Blanco, 392 F.3d 382, 387 (9th Cir. 2004) (internal quotation marks omitted).

7       2.     404(b) Evidence

8       The United States will disclose sufficiently in advance of trial the general nature of any prior acts
9 evidence that it intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 404(b).

10      3.     Preservation of Evidence

11      The United States will preserve all evidence to which the defendant is entitled to pursuant to the 12 relevant discovery rules. The United States objects to a blanket request to preserve all physical evidence.

13      4.     Defendant’s Statements

14      The United States has already provided defense counsel with incident reports detailing
15 Defendant’s brief statements in primary, as well as a DVD recording of her post-arrest interview.

16      5.     Tangible Objects

17      The United States has complied and will continue to comply with Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E)
18 in allowing Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy tangible 19 objects that are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the preparation
20 of Defendant’s defense, or is intended for use by the United States as evidence during its case-in-chief 21 at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant.

22      6.     Expert Witnesses

23      The United States will comply with Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G) and provide Defendant with 24 notice and a written summary of any expert testimony that the United States intends to use during its 25 case-in-chief at trial under Rules 702, 703, or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence.

26      7.     Witness Addresses

27      The United States will provide the names of the witnesses it intends to call at trial. Similarly, 28 the government trusts that Defendant will provide the names of the witnesses he intends to call.

1 Defendant has already been provided access to the names of potential witnesses through the discovery
2 sent to her counsel. The United States objects to Defendant's request for witness addresses. No cases
3 cited by Defendant, nor any rule of discovery, requires the United States to disclose witness addresses.
4 The United States does not know of any individuals who were witnesses to Defendant's offenses except 5 the law enforcement agents who apprehended her and the material witnesses. The names of these 6 individuals have already been provided to Defendant.

7       8.     Jencks Act Material

8       The United States has or will comply with the disclosure requirements of the Jencks Act. For 9 purposes of the Jencks Act, a "statement" is (1) a written statement made by the witness and signed or 10 otherwise adopted or approved by him, (2) a substantially verbatim, contemporaneously recorded
11 transcription of the witness's oral statement, or (3) a statement by the witness before a grand jury. 18
12 U.S.C. § 3500(e). Notes of an interview only constitute statements discoverable under the Jencks Act 13 if the statements are adopted by the witness, as when the notes are read back to a witness to see whether 14 or not the government agent correctly understood what the witness was saying. United States v. Boshell, 15 952 F.2d 1101, 1105 (9th Cir. 1991) (citing Goldberg v. United States, 425 U.S. 94, 98 (1976)). By the 16 same token, rough notes by an agent "are not producible under the Jencks Act due to the incomplete 17 nature of the notes." United States v. Cedano-Arellano, 332 F.3d 568, 571 (9th Cir. 2004).

18       The United States is not aware of any dispatch tapes containing Jencks Act material in this case.

19       9.     Informants and Cooperating Witnesses

20       At this time, the United States is not aware of any confidential informants or cooperating 21 witnesses involved in this case, other than the two women identified and held as material witnesses. The 22 government must generally disclose the identity of informants where (1) the informant is a material
23 witness, or (2) the informant's testimony is crucial to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S.
24 53, 59 (1957). These threshold requirements have been interpreted to require that, if any cooperating 25 witnesses or informants were involved or become involved, Defendant must show that disclosure of the 26 informer's identity would be "relevant and helpful" or that the informer was the sole percipient witness 27 before he would even be entitled to an in-camera evidentiary hearing regarding disclosure of the 28 informer's identity. United States v. Jaramillo-Suarez, 950 F.2d 1378, 1386-87 (9th Cir. 1991), quoting

1 Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 60 (1957). Any bias issues will be handled pursuant to Brady.

2 10. Scientific Requests:

3 a. Request for TECS

4 Any reports generated from TECS that the United States intends to use in its case-in-chief
5 will be provided as discovery in advance of trial

6 b. Request to view the car

7 This request is addressed in Item 5, above.

8 c. Request to view the cellular phone

9 To the extent that such a cellular phone even exists in this case, this request is addressed
10 in Item 5, above.

11 d. Request for access to A-files

12 The United States will conduct a review of the two material witnesses' alien files to 13 determine if any potentially exculpatory evidence is contained within them.

14 e. Request for expert disclosure

15 In advance of trial, the Government will turn over any scientific reports and identify any 16 experts it intends to call at trial.

17 11. Residual Request

18 As stated above, the United States will comply with its discovery obligations in a timely manner.

19
20 B. THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN TO THE GRAND JURY DURING IMPANELMENT DID
21 NOT DEPRIVE DEFENDANT OF AN IMPARTIAL GRAND JURY

22 The Government incorporates by reference the Government's response and opposition regarding 23 this exact issue in United States v. Martinez-Covarrubias, 07CR0491-BTM. This motion has been 24 denied by each court that has considered it. Also incorporated by reference is this Court's order denying 25 the motion to dismiss in case 07CR0491-BTM.

26

27 //

28

1      I. LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

2      The United States does not oppose Defendant's request for leave to file further motions, so long
3      as such motions are based on discovery not yet received by Defendant.

4

5      III

6      UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

7      Defendant has invoked Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) and the United States has voluntarily complied
8      with the requirements of Rule 16(a). Therefore, provision 16(b) of that rule, requiring reciprocal 9      discovery, is applicable. The United States hereby requests Defendant to permit the United States to 10     inspect, copy, and photograph any and all books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, or 11     make copies of portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody or control of Defendant and 12     which he intends to introduce as evidence in her case-in-chief at trial.

13     The United States further requests that it be permitted to inspect and copy or photograph any 14     results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in 15     connection with this case, which are in the possession or control of Defendant, which he intends to 16     introduce as evidence-in-chief at the trial or which were prepared by a witness whom Defendant intends 17     to call as a witness. The United States also requests that the court make such orders as it deems 18     necessary under Rule 16(d)(1) and (2) to insure that the United States receives the discovery to which 19     it is entitled.

20     Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 26.2 requires the production of prior statements of all 21     witnesses, except Defendant. The time frame established by the rule requires the statement to be 22     provided after the witness has testified, as in the Jencks Act. The United States hereby requests that 23     Defendant be ordered to supply all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before trial
24     to be set by the court. This order should include any form these statements are memorialized in, 25     including but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and/or reports.

26
